PERA's Pension Plans

What is a Pension?

- A retirement plan paid into while working that provides a future monthly lifetime income
- Funds are professionally managed by the Minnesota State Board of Investment
- Future benefit amount based on a formula

Participation is required if:

- Employee exceeds $425 monthly salary threshold; and
- No exclusions apply

Coordinated Plan — Minn. Stat. § 353.01, subd. 2a or 2d

- Largest of PERA's three pension plans
- For most full or part-time permanent employees, including non-certified employees of independent school districts

Police & Fire Plan — Minn. Stat. § 353.64

- For full-time police officers and full-time professional firefighters
- Part-time police officers and firefighters can be enrolled with a resolution
 - If no resolution is provided, default plan is Coordinated

Correctional Plan — Minn. Stat. § 353E.02

- For correctional guards or officers, a joint jailer/dispatcher, or a supervisor of these positions
- Must be working in a county, regional adult, or juvenile correctional facility

Calculated on Three Factors

- Years of Service
- Average Monthly Salary
- Age

Public Employees DCP

Public Employees DCP

- Member and/or employer contribute % of gross eligible salary from each paycheck
- Member makes investment decisions
- Funds grow tax-deferred until retirement

Public Employees DCP Participation

Participation is optional:

- If it is the employee's first PERA eligibility with that unit, and
- It is within 30 days of their first day of work in a DCP-eligible position with that employer

Participation is mandatory:

- If the employee previously had PERA coverage with the same employer that they are now in a DCP-eligible position for

- No salary requirements
- Contributions go towards purchasing shares
- Lump-sum payout—no monthly benefits

DCP vs. Pension Plans

Defined Contribution Plan

- Payment based on amount of contributions and investment performance
- Member makes investment decisions
- One-time lump sum

PERA's Pension Plans

- Payment based on average salary, years of service, and age at retirement
- SBI manages investments on member's behalf
- Lifetime monthly benefit
